AMYOTROPHIC LATERAL SCLEROSIS

Whereas amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, or Lou Gehrig's disease, constitutes a serious health problem in the United States in that it afflicts thousands of Americans annually;

Whereas the complications of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis significantly decrease the quality of life and have a major negative economic, social, and psychological impact on the families of its victims;

Whereas biomedical research efforts to date have been unsuccessful in finding the cause of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis;

Whereas the development of advanced methods of treatment of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis deserves national priority; and

Whereas the citizens of the United States should have a full understanding of the nature of the human, social, and economic impact of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis and of the need to discover its cause and to develop a cure: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that action should be taken to focus national attention on the extent and consequences of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis and on the need for finding a cure for this disease.

Agreed to November 29, 1977.
